

Theorem: CT-frame registration makes every displayed field comparable on one physical grid; linear fusion is a confidence-gated composite, iterative elastic FWI is a nonlinear ElasticPSTD baseline/lesion residual inversion, and nonlinear fusion combines Westervelt FWI with cavitation evidence.

Caption: lesioning evidence is shown after common-grid CT-frame resampling; target contours are white and therapy aperture samples are yellow.